THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for Greeley and Brown, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

	DAILY NEWS.	WEEKLY NEWS.
One copy	$2.25	$2.00
Five copies	$10.00	$10.00
Ten copies	$17.50	$17.50

We trust our friends in the State will assist us in adding names to our list, as by a little exertion on their part we can be enabled to accomplish much good during the present campaign.

LOCAL MATTER.

COTTON MARKET.—The receipts yesterday were light and but little activity exhibited in the Market, especially on the part of buyers who seemed unwilling to invest at 17 cents, though a few sales were effected at the above figures.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Go to church to-night.
The Italian summer days are upon us.
The Mayor's Court was bare of items yesterday.

Letter and Bill Heads are specialties of our Job Department.

Judge Merrimon returned to the city from Iredell court yesterday morning.

More food for "Granville" of Raleigh—the Franklin Courier's account of the Ridgeway concert.

Maj. W. A. Hearne is announced in the last number of the Era as Co-Editor with J. C. Logan Harris of that paper.

The large brick building, in course of erection on the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, progresses favorably.

And still they come—twenty-three new subscribers to the Daily News. We have yet two more pages left on our subscription book.

The "Band of Hope," a colored Temperance organization, paraded the streets last night and closed with a jollification at Metropolitan Hall.

Frap's dispenses at his popular saloon on Fayetteville street 15 year old Bourbon whiskey (pure and genuine) at 25 cents for a measured drink.

The Sewing Machine business is on the increase in this city. Our readers will please take notice that the best one is advertised in the News.

The Fisher iron front building, corner Exchange Place and Fayetteville street, is fast approaching completion. When finished it will be one of the handsomest buildings in the city.

The horse attached to the Express wagon dashed off from the central depot yesterday evening, but was stopped by officer Farris, of the police, before any damage was done.

Smith & Pool, stall No. 9, are the fish and oyster men of the city market. They are men of experience in the oyster line, and the public may rely with safety upon getting them fresh and as represented.

The rats are exhibiting much uneasiness in regard to the question of contesting. Well they may, for we tell them their dark and damnable deeds are being daily unearthed, and the world will soon know how North Carolina Radicals carry elections.

FATHER McNAMARA.—On Sunday

at St. John's Catholic Church, the pastor, Rev. J. V. McNamara, had occasion to speak of his own pecuniary embarrassments, which we must say, is a very remarkable thing in a Christian community. This, however, arises from the fact that his own congregation, with a very few exceptions, are too poor to relieve his necessities. Protestant as well as Catholic know the wretched state of affairs in this city. The people are too poor to relieve his necessities. Protestant as well as Catholic know the wretched state of affairs in this city. The people are too poor to relieve his necessities.

HERE AND THERE.—

Spinks is not going to do any more in our community. He asked his wife why he was like a donkey, and she said because he was born so, and he says that the answer is very different from that.

Girls are said to grow into just such women as their fathers. If we want them stronger and nobler, we must appreciate and encourage all who try to give themselves the old-fashioned, simple, healthful training.

It is a matter of some interest to our mercantile community to know that all revenue stamps on hand October 1st, may be redeemed by check stamps, by forwarding them to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, at Washington City.

Another fashionable peril has been discovered, which will doubtless frighten the ladies like fire. Silks which are colored with pinks of lead are liable to explode at any moment if subjected to too great a heat.

"Correct likeness of yourself sent, and your fortune told." Young Green, in answer to the above, is advertised as a fortune teller, and is informed that he can tell his own fortune by counting his money.

The Rocky Mount Mail learns that the cotton crop throughout that section has been severely damaged. It is feared that the high price of cotton will make up the deficiency.

STATE FAIR.—The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society are working energetically in the interest of the coming Fair. A meeting was held on Friday and Saturday of the past week, and two meetings a week, at least, have been fixed upon until the 14th of October, the day on which the Fair opens.

Every effort is being made practically, to make the occasion both pleasant and profitable to all that may attend. We are pleased to learn that our railroad officials are seconding the effort of the Executive Committee, and have arranged for an exceedingly low tariff of fares to and from the Fair. Exhibitors will have every facility offered for their accommodation.

We learn that already quarters have been engaged by numbers that expect to attend, and daily rooms are being engaged in advance, at the principal hotels.

Trains will be run to accommodate parties that cannot remain over night, &c., &c.

If the next does not surpass all the former Fairs, it will be because our people will not exhibit what they will have to show. Crops have been abundant and our people have been constantly improving their stock of every kind since the war. It is therefore only necessary for all, to bring up to the Fair what they may have to make the exhibition such as true North Carolinians shall be proud of.

And just here, we must say, that we want all that have heretofore been fault-finders, at any of our Fairs, either State or local, to ask themselves what they have heretofore done, and are now doing to make the exhibitions a success.

Our observation, heretofore, has been that the croakers are generally those who have themselves done the least to promote the success of the exhibitions. We hope to see such a change in themselves to excel in the quantity and quality of the articles brought to the Fair, and our word for it, if such is the case, we will see a proud day for the Good Old North State.

Not so.—We have received testimonials from several of the ladies present at the Louisville dinner, of which the Sentinel has made mention, which show conclusively that the informant of the aforesaid paper greatly mistook our amiable compeers. These will be published in due time. We have also been accurately gauged by an eminent mathematician, and it has been found that we have not room to store one half the amount of provisions charged to our account by our extravagant brother local. Ah well!

"Time at last sets all things right."

THE LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA.—This institution, with its principal office in St. Louis, has the office of its North Carolina Department in Raleigh, with the Hon. Kemp P. Battle as President, with an efficient corps of home officers, combining the advantages of a home institution and the strength of a national organization. Mr. Jno. W. Blount, of this city, is general agent, and will this week commence a thorough canvass of the Eastern portion of the State, and we can heartily commend both him and the company he represents. See his card in another column.

SUNDAY.—The day was clear, cool and pleasant, the churches were all largely attended, and strange to say, not the slightest disorder, even a negro boy skinned was observable on the street. Religious services were in progress the entire day, commencing at the Baptist church with a sunrise prayer meeting, and ending with evening worship at the various churches. We verily believe that an era of reform is at hand, and now that the seed have been sown in fertile ground, will the religious element of the city permit the harvest to pass without fruitful results.

SOMETHING IS UP—WHAT IS IT?

Col. William F. Henderson, the Radical Revenue Assessor from Salisbury, James S. Boyd, the defeated Radical candidate for the House of Representatives from Alamance, J. C. Hester, the Radical spy and detective from Greensboro, with other foreign celebrities, were stirring around considerably yesterday with many of the natives on "mischief bent," we are inclined to believe—but what it is we are unable to ferret out.

A SPLENDID CLOTHING HOUSE.—Our friends in this State who may visit Petersburg, Va., will find in the establishment of Messrs. Noah Walker & Co. one of the best clothing houses in the country. Their goods are always of the latest styles, are well made, and cannot fail to suit. A long acquaintance with the gentlemen who manage this establishment justify us in asserting that they are unsurpassed for their accommodating spirit. Read their advertisement in another column.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS.—

See the card in another column of Messrs. A. G. Lee & Co., wholesale and retail grocers, cotton factors and commission merchants, Wilmington street. They announce the opening of the fall campaign, having on hand all kinds of heavy groceries, assortments of hardware, shoes, leather, domestics, gingham, cotton yarns, &c., and solicit consignments of all kinds of country produce.

BAILEY'S ACADEMY.—We neglected in our yesterday's issue to mention the opening of Thomas B. Bailey's school for boys, which occurred yesterday. Mr. Bailey has established an enviable reputation as an educator in this city, and his excellent school is far-famed. Mr. Bailey is a thorough and accomplished scholar, a high toned gentleman, and well fitted for the responsible duties of his vocation. See his notice in another column.

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE 'RIGHT-ROUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano, Grant's Secretary of Interior, in his speech at Raleigh.

IN THIS FAITH, AND WITH THE DISTINCT UNDERSTANDING THAT IF ELECTED, I SHALL BE THE PRESIDENT, NOT OF A PARTY, BUT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE, I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MARCHES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE EAGER TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM, WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM, FORGETTING THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ENEMIES, IN THE JOYFUL CONSCIOUSNESS THAT THEY ARE, AND MUST HENCEFORTH REMAIN, BROTHERS.—HORACE GREELY.

"We want a President without a party; a government without corruption; a Congress without price; and a Judiciary without politics."—E. Grant Brown.

VOTE AGAINST GRANT.

Some persons who are bitterly opposed to Radicalism, and who would not support Grant under any circumstances, seem indifferent about voting at all, on account of their opposition to Horace Greeley's former political course. Like Gen. Early, they are disposed to be neutral; but it compelled to vote at all, would vote for Greeley, because their political friends and associates will do so.

To such we would appeal to lay aside their prejudices, and be guided by their reason and common sense. Every man opposed to the Radical party who refuses or fails to vote on any account, gives indirect aid to the Radicals. Every vote thus lost to Greeley is that much benefit to Grant.

The choice for President, having, by the force of circumstances, become limited to Greeley or Grant, the question recurs to every reasonable mind—which of the two will give us the better administration? Which candidate is the most competent, honest, kind-hearted, and generous to the South? Which gives better promise of relief from corrupt officials and military despotism? Which will do more to protect the Southern States from carpet bag plunder and spoliation? Which gives a better guarantee of permanent peace and concord between the States?

To us it seems there can be but one answer to these questions. The reelection of Grant will increase the burdens and wrongs under which our people are now groaning.

His re-election will give us four years more of Radical rule—which is but another name for corruption, robbery and ruin.

Whether you like or dislike Greeley, be sure to go to the polls and vote against Grant. The question is, not what has Greeley said, but what has Grant done? His acts of cruelty and oppression speak louder than Greeley's words, written in the heat of political discussion.

If you stay away from the polls, you contribute, by so doing, to Grant's reelection.

There is no alternative left. Every man who desires a pure, honest, economical government; who wishes to see the Revenue and Carpet-bag thieves turned out of office; who longs for the restoration of civil law in the South; who would have the bayonet lifted from the throats of our people; who would see the country free, prosperous and happy, should go to the polls on the fifth day of November, and vote against the reelection of Ulysses S. Grant.

The Virginia papers are advocating the erection of a new capitol building.

THE WORK AHEAD—NO TIME TO BE LOST.

Do our people realize the fact that the Presidential election is not six weeks off?

With one or two exceptions, we have seen no appointments for public speaking published by the State and District Electors.

Are the Congressional Committees doing their duty?

With the exception of that of the Second District, we have seen no published list of canvassers for the several Congressional Districts in the State.

Besides these, it strikes us that canvassers for the State at large might be appointed by the State Executive Committee, and appointments made for them to speak at different points.

We know well some of our Committeemen, both for the State and Districts, are often engaged, and cannot attend the meetings of their respective bodies. But it is highly important to the interests of the party that these meetings be well attended. We think, therefore, these individuals whose engagements are such that they cannot give any time or attention to such matters ought to resign, in order that their places may be supplied by others who can act.

The work before us is highly important and it is full time that the campaign for November had been set in motion. Other States are holding large meetings and arousing the people to the vital issues involved in the great national struggle—so close at hand.

Appointments, if any are to be made at all, should be published as early as possible, in order to give sufficient notice, to insure good crowds. The people who need most instruction—those who live remote from Railroads and Postoffices, and who are destitute of mail facilities, should be reached, and appealed to and convinced, by argument and entreaty, of the necessity of defeating President Grant.

But there is something more needed than public speaking. There must be a thorough and efficient system of County and Township organization. The County Executive Committees have grave and responsible duties to perform, and these duties must be discharged faithfully and vigilantly, in order to insure certain victory in November and in all other contests hereafter. Every Chairman of each County Executive Committee should be an active, intelligent, zealous advocate of our cause, and should take a pride in that work to which he has been assigned.

A gain of three votes in the Township over the August returns will insure the State for Greeley and Brown in November.

Let us then go to work at once and faithfully, and see to it, that not only Caldwell's reputed majority of two thousand is overcome, but that a handsome majority is polled for the ticket of civil reform, reconciliation and Constitutional liberty.

THE GREAT DEMONSTRATION IN NEW YORK.

The New York papers give glowing accounts of the magnificent Liberal rally there on last Thursday night. It is conceded on all hands to have been one of the largest and most imposing political demonstrations ever known in that city. The great speech of the occasion was delivered by Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, of Virginia, which is highly complimented by the World and Tribune for its statesmanlike and patriotic sentiments. It is said to be the ablest speech made by any Southern politician since the close of the war.

There were seven stands in all, and the number of persons present is set down at one hundred thousand. There were some twenty speakers, among them several from the South. Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and Hon. A. J. Requier, of Alabama, made brief addresses. Next to Ex-Senator Hunter's, the speeches of Hon. Francis Kernan, the Liberal candidate for Governor, and General N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts, elicited the most attention.

In its account the Tribune says: "It positively seemed as though all New York were there. Every foot of Union square was thronged. The crowds were of course thickest about the speaker's stands where they listened in perfect silence, broken only by applause. But even beyond the speaker's, the dense masses stood packed, cheering the flags, the processions, the fireworks, and the louder bursts of oratory. It was not an ordinary mass meeting. It was a rendezvous of the people of New York. No less than seven meetings were in progress at once, densely attended, and addressed by stirring and popular speakers. It was one of those enormous demonstrations that are not possible except in winning causes. The people do not gather in this fashion unless their hearts are enlisted in the work, and unless the occasion calls forth all their enthusiasm and furnishes the powerful stimulant of hope. It is when a thing is to be done that the masses in this way come to the job, and by their own enthusiasm accomplish the progress they expect and desire."

SUMNER DECLINES.
From our dispatches, it will be seen that Senator Sumner declines the nomination for Governor of Massachusetts, recently tendered him by the Democratic and Liberal Convention of that State. Mr. Sumner's feeble health will not permit him to take an active part in politics at present. All his influence, however, will be exerted in favor of the Liberal cause.

When such men as Sumner, Banks and Bird in Massachusetts take issue against Grant, we have a right to expect a great revolution in the political sentiment of the Old Bay State.

The New Orleans Republican gives as the summary of papers published in Louisiana—newspapers supporting Greeley and Brown, 24; Grant and Wilson, 18; independent and doubtful, 5. Of these, the ability and standing are on the side of the Greeley papers. Take away the Custom-house pay from the Grant papers, and two-thirds of them would die to-morrow.

CORRUPTION IN CONGRESS.

ASTOUNDING developments have recently been made through the public press, in regard to the connection of leading Radical members of Congress, both in the Senate and House, with the Credit Mobilier. The Credit Mobilier was a scheme set on foot by the "Railroad Ring," and was organized under a Pennsylvania charter for the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad, by which immense profits were made for the Ring.

The evidence in regard to the complicity of certain members of Congress in this Railroad swindle has been brought to light in a law-suit now pending against the Credit Mobilier by one Henry S. McCombs, one of the incorporators. The list of shares owned by each member of Congress is shown upon affidavit in the suit, and is furnished by Hon. Oakes Ames, a Republican member of Congress from Massachusetts. The list will be found in our "CAMPAIGN NOTES," this morning, implicating, among others, Blaine, Elliot, Boutwell and Dawes, members of the House, from Massachusetts, and also Senator Henry Wilson, the Radical candidate for Vice President, who owned two thousand shares of stock in the concern.

Now here we have sworn evidence, brought out by their own party friends, of the unblushing corruption of leading Republican members of Congress, whose votes and influence were purchased by Railroad jobbers, and payment of a small number of shares in stock was the consideration for their services.

The whole country is looking forward with deep anxiety for the answer of the gentlemen who have thus been publicly charged, upon sworn testimony, with malfeasance and crime.

Unless they can furnish rebutting testimony, the world will judge them by the evidence thus far elicited as being guilty of siding, from corrupt motives, the great Railroad Ring in getting their measures through Congress.

The proof against them is conclusive, as it now stands. A simple denial by them is not sufficient. The testimony is solemnly sworn to, by a man of high character of their own political faith, and was not furnished for party capital, but was extorted in a law-suit instituted long before the campaign opened.

Senator Wilson, the Radical nominee for Vice President, who now acknowledges he was a Know Nothing, owes it to himself, to his party, and to the public, to meet the charge against him of owning two thousand shares in the stock of the Credit Mobilier, in such a manner as will clear his skirts of the imputation of venality and corruption.

JUDGE CHASE'S POSITION.

Judge Chase has written a letter to a gentleman in Cleveland, Ohio, in which he says: "I make no secret of my conviction that the highest interests of our country require the election of Mr. Greeley or of my intention to vote for him. Everything and more that could be hoped from me may be expected from Mr. Greeley."

With such men as Chase, and Sumner, and Trumbull, and Banks, and Schurz and others who have occupied the first rank in the Republican party, advocating the claims of Mr. Greeley, it is no wonder that we have constant accessions to the Liberal cause from the former adherents of Grant.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Democracy of Indiana are confident of triumph in October. That's the spirit that creates victory.

The people are right in the neighborhood of Detroit. Six Greeley and Brown badges are sold to one Grant and Wilson.

It is more and more apparent each day that the Ohio Republicans are very much dissatisfied with Grant. Thousands of them are going for Greeley.

The number of spectators present at the great Greeley ratification meeting in New York on Thursday is computed by the Sun to have been 100,000.

The Administration hacks are trying to belittle General Bank's advocacy of Greeley. They cannot do that, any more than they can refute his logic.

It is time for the Conservative "press" to give up calculating the loss and gain of the Maine election. There is a great triumph due in November. Let them work for that.

The rumor in Philadelphia is that the Democrats will withdraw all their candidates for city office, except those nominated by the municipal reformers. A good sign.

Eight hundred and fourteen voters of Titusville, Penn., have demanded reform. They will not get it under either of that noble couple of statesmen—Grant or Hartranft.

Colonel A. K. McClure, at a large Liberal meeting at Reading, Pennsylvania, predicted that in Philadelphia the Liberals would "make fraud hide in terror before election day, and the boasted majority of 12,000 to 15,000 will vanish."

The funniest thing in journalism lately is the delight with which some innocent frontier papers received the news of the Louisville nomination, and predicted great results from it. The next funny thing will be what they will say when they know what a great farce it has turned out.

That Credit Mobilier scheme was a famous fisherman of honest men. Look at all these honest men caught by the Mobilier hook, and now dangling from the line—a baker's dozen of them:

Blaine, of Maine, $2,000
Patterson, of New Hampshire, 2,000
Wilson, of Massachusetts, 2,000
Palmer, (rep.) for Quincy, 2,000
S. Colfax, Speaker, 2,000
Scott and Kelley, of Pennsylvania, 2,000
Elliot, of Massachusetts, 2,000
Dawes, of Massachusetts, 2,000
Powell, of Tennessee, 2,000
Boutwell, of Massachusetts, 2,000
Bingham and Garfield, of Ohio, (each) 2,000

Who is He?—Don Piest, writing from the White Sulphur Springs to the Washington Capital, says: "The paternal author of the belle here, it is said, the other day, shortly after his return to the springs, was approached by a youth from Western Georgia, who requested a few moments conversation in private, and began, 'I was requested to see you by your lovely daughter. Our attached parent brinks, 'I don't know what that girl of mine is about. You are the fourth gentleman who has approached me this morning on that subject. I have given my consent to the others, and I give it to you. God bless you.'"

The Chicago Times thinks that the "Greeley business is the most absurd and contemptible farce in American history." The Chicago Times says so; but who cares what the Chicago Times says? Does it not think the Louisville Convention a great movement, and does it not believe that Charles O'Connor will be our next President? That is enough for the Chicago Times.

Senator Brownlow, of Tennessee, in his usual fashion, derived from Vulcan's tithy, speaks of the Democrats who vote for the Baltimore nominees as the "Greeley apostates who rally to the practical flag." Pshaw! it would disgust an honest man with the Baltimore nomination, out and out, if he knew it was supported by Brownlow.

The latest accounts from Japan evidence that American civilization is rapidly finding its way there. Among the latest modern improvements in the introduction of the American style of caning an Editor, Surgeon Tryon, of the U. S. Navy took offence at being called "Dr. Spindleshanks" by a Hiogo paper, and hence the result.

The fall missions of Hamden Sydney College and Union Theological Seminary, Prince Edward county, have opened with an increase of students over last session.

The negroes of St. Louis are not all for Grant. Many of them belong to Greeley clubs. But the worst feature is that the Grant negroes Ku-Klux the Greeley negroes whenever they get a chance.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

Our Eastern exchanges speak of an abundance of rain within the last week.

The streets of Weldon are being graded and drained. So says the News.

The late rains have made the navigation of the Cape Fear an easier matter.

A good deal of brandy is being distilled in the western part of the State this year.

The Mail says that the health of Dr. Thorpe, of Rocky Mount, is decidedly improving.

The editor of Rocky Mount Mail speaks of the beautiful young ladies of Warrenton. Brother Stiffley has a level head.

The Rockingham Record has vainly sought to get up a "snake story"—the Rockingham snakes are pretty good in their way, but won't itemize worth a cent.

ROGER A. PRYON, Esq., of New York, will deliver the annual address before the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, at Wilmington, on the 14th of November.

A GENTLEMAN in Craven county made a narrow escape a few days since from being bit by a rattlesnake. The biter was "hit," and his snakeship now "sleeps in the valley."

The Newbern Courier learns that the people in that part of Beaufort county, adjacent to Pamlico, intend petitioning the next Legislature to connect that portion of Beaufort with Pamlico.

The Roanoke News learns that a young man named Jones, clerking for Captain Aven, near Hilliardston, Nash county, fatally stabbed a negro named Skinner, on Thursday last. The negro struck Jones first.

The Wilmington Star of Saturday says: "We learn from parties who arrived on the W. C. & R. R. R., yesterday afternoon, that the Grand Jury of the Superior Court of Bladen, now in session at Elizabethtown, have found true bills against ex-Sheriff Eldridge, of that county, and a man by the name of Hammond, living at Rosendale, for complicity in a robbery that occurred some time since. The parties were arrested and carried to Elizabethtown, but Hammond succeeded in making his escape. Eldridge, at last accounts, was in the Sheriff's office under guard. His trial, we learn, was to have come off on Thursday. As a matter of justice we would state that Eldridge's friends are confident that he will be able to prove his innocence."

The Petersburg Progress of yesterday morning gives the subjoined particulars of the recent diabolical outrage perpetrated in Halifax county upon a citizen of Petersburg, some mention of which has already been made. Says the Progress:

Last Friday Mr. J. S. Spivey, whose family resides on Batterson, in this city, arrived home in a most pitiable plight, utterly unable to talk and bearing about his person the indications of a violent and murderous assault. At the solicitation of our reporter, Mr. Spivey furnished the following statement in writing, which reveals one of the strangest and most diabolical efforts at human torture that has ever come within our knowledge:

I had been engaged sometime in the store of Messrs. Tingen & Ashton, at Weldon, but finding myself unable to attend to my duties on account of a disabled foot, I went to Mrs. Summerville's, about three miles from Weldon, for the purpose of remaining until my recovery. On the evening of the 5th inst., having had an early supper, I walked with some ladies down the lane about a quarter of a mile, and on returning was seated with one of them at the parlor window, when I discovered a white object moving about the bushes. I directed the attention of the ladies to this fact, but as it did not appear again they came to the conclusion that I must have been deceived by a shadow. I slept in the parlor during my sojourn in the house, and after a short time the ladies left the room to me. I then undressed, blew out the light and retired, but I had not been in bed many minutes when I heard a noise at the window to my right, and raising my head perceived a large man coming toward me. I reached to my side for my revolver, but before I could spring and fire, it was seized by two men from my left, who choked me so that I could not speak, while the largest of the three grasped my mouth and forced some unknown to me poisonous substance into it, which I was prevented from swallowing by the choking. At this point I heard the ladies calling me from up stairs. The ruffians then opened the passage door, but hearing the noise upstairs, immediately turned back upon me and choked me again, barely escaping through the window as Mrs. Summerville opened the passage door. She called me, but I could not speak at all, though in about five minutes after I was able to speak and told her that some one in white had choked me that I could not speak at all, and have not spoken but eight words since. The doctor was sent for, but did not arrive until the next morning. He was unable to tell what was the nature of the poison, but ordered the white of an egg and milk for me. Last Wednesday I took out a large piece of decayed flesh from my throat, and on the same day a large lump from my throat passed into my stomach. Two days afterwards another lump passed into my stomach, and I extracted several pieces of decayed flesh from my throat. My throat is now healing rapidly, and I think in a few days will be entirely well.

As the ruffians were masked it was impossible for me to determine whether they were white or black, though I judged by the feeling of their hands that they were negroes. One was of extraordinary height, seeming over 7 feet, while the others were about 5 feet 8 inches each. Their intention must have been to murder the entire household, as I can conceive of no reason for the attack upon me. My treatment at the hands of the Summervilles, as well as the neighbors, was of the kindest character, to whom, together with Drs. Gee and Pierce, I return sincerest thanks. J. S. SPIVEY.

The Failures in Baltimore.

The mercantile community was yesterday much shocked and the course of business very materially interfered with by the announcement of the suspension of no less than five large mercantile firms, among whom was the great importing and shipping house of Messrs. Kirkland, Chase & Co. The cause of this wholesale suspension may be placed to losses in grocery articles, principally coffee, and to the business connections between the different firms. The failure of Messrs. Kirkland, Chase & Co. was preceded by that of Messrs. Lazar Brothers, and was followed by that of Messrs. J. C. Bridges & Co., Messrs. William Bayne & Co., and Messrs. A. A. Perry & Co., all of whom, with the exception of the last, were large wholesale dealers in groceries. Messrs. Perry were engaged in the lumber business, principally in co-operation stock. The amount of the liabilities of these firms is estimated at nearly three millions of dollars, but it is impossible to speak with certainty as to this or of the ultimate result of the disaster, although it is generally believed that the suspension will only be temporary, and that the majority if not all of these houses will speedily resume business. The gentlemen composing these firms have personally and as merchants the respect of the entire community, and great sympathy is expressed for them in their present unfortunate position, and not a breath of suspicion has or it is believed can be cast upon any one of them. The firm of Kirkland, Chase & Co. it will be remembered by most of our merchants, were before compelled to suspend payment in 1860, when they compromised with their creditors for seventy-five cents in the dollar, and resumed business. They were soon successful and (to their honor be it said) paid in full every dollar of their liabilities.—Baltimore American of Saturday.

The Mountain Meadow Massacre and the Mormons.

An affidavit, says a telegram from Salt Lake City, has been made by one of the least guilty among the participants in the Mountain Meadow massacre, showing conclusively that the terrible slaughter was the work of the Mormon authorities. It will be remembered that a large company of emigrants, on their way to California, are known to have been all killed, with the exception of the young children. When their massacre was discovered the Mormons set about the story that they had perished by the hands of Indians, but from time to time circumstantial evidence has appeared indicating that they were murdered in cold blood by the Mormons in revenge for previous outrages upon the latter, perpetrated in Illinois and Missouri. A competent witness states under oath that the Mormon militia attacked the emigrants, and after a fight of several days without result sent in a flag of truce offering them protection if they would lay down their arms. These terms being complied with, the entire party of men and women were butchered by their captors. The deponent is Philip Clingon Smith, who was at the time Mormon Bishop of Cedar City. He was a recruit in the Mormon militia, and was told by Lieutenant-Colonel Heald, that if he (Heald) had order from headquarters to kill all the emigrants. He heard the orders passed down the Mormon line to shoot the emigrant prisoners, and witnessed the entire massacre. He took charge of the children, the only members of the party saved. The shooting force was under command of Major John D. Lee, who made a speech to his men shortly before the massacre, stating that his orders from headquarters were to kill the entire company of emigrants except the small children.

Governor Jacob, of West Virginia, just re-elected, has fixed his position for Greeley beyond doubt in a letter read to a Greeley meeting at Charleston, in that State. What will the Grantites say now? Is West Virginia sure for Grant?

ET TU?

BY HOWARD GLENNON.

Is this the end of all these years?
Must we be strangers now, we two?
That you should choose this thing to do?
That you should smite me, unawares,
And leave me when you find me true?
Is this the fruit your loving bears?
I had not thought so ill of you!

Ah! looking deep into your eyes,
I thought to read your thought and through;
And listening to your low replies,
How confidence and really grew?
Remembering 'tis your hand that tries,
Our ancient compact to undo,
My blood is frozen with surprise!
I had not thought so ill of you!

Perhaps a prouder heart than mine
Might lift a face of brighter hue;
Perhaps a sinner heart than mine
Might wish some evil fate to you;
Perhaps a harder heart than mine
By word or deed might make you rue;
But I shall leave you this one sign:
I had not thought so ill of you!
